An Excruciatingly Opinionated Guide to the Connecticut Shoreline

SHOP CALENDAR EAT DISCOVER TRAVEL TOWN GUIDES

This newsletter was completed just around the time the news of the Notre Dame fire broke. We are heartbroken for the French and for the world. (That's my mom at Notre Dame in the '50's).

PLEASE NOTE: Our Hat and Bag Decorating Party, originally scheduled for next week, has been postponed until early summer. Keep an eye out here for the new date.

Wishing all a happy Passover and Easter.

More Cheese Please: Mystic Cheese Cafe

I don't need an excuse to eat a grilled cheese sandwich but National Grilled Cheese month is as good as it gets! If you're in the mood to celebrate this important holiday, I say you make a run to Groton to the new Mystic Cheese Cafe. You're likely familiar with...

Here are some favorite new arrivals:

Winye Dress

The fan-favorite dress now available in a not-quite-navy blue 100% linen. Midi-length with a narrow deep vee, worn loose it skims the body, or tie it for a a shirtwaist fit. A workhorse of a dress.

Boheme Blouse

A sweet and summery white cotton blouse with gold embroidery and rope tie. Wear it with jeans now and a flowy white linen pant later. Slightly sheer but works with nude color bra, or slip a tank underneath.

Tie Dye Dress

I can't make it through summer without throwing in a little tie-dye and here's a good version. Knee length, tunic fit tie-dyed dress with tonal embroidery throughout in 100% slubby cotton. Sneakers, flip flops or a Greek sandal and you're good to go!
